Our mission is to create successful, safe and memorable events that gather people together to celebrate life. We are a creative and dedicated team that produces and provides professional management for festivals, special events and venues.

We create extraordinary experiences.

Culture Statement and Core Values

The success of Premier Events results from our dedicated team and their 100% commitment to living our core values. These values define who we are, how we treat our clients, our patrons, our vendors, our fellow teammates and how we run our business.

Manage for Innovation

We thrive on creativity and ingenuity. We overcome challenges by inspiring innovation and creative solutions with passion and energy. We encourage, respect and appreciate the perspectives of others. We look for best practices to inspire the next level of achievement. We seek ways to provide better service, offer solutions, and solve challenges.

Accountability

We are driven to do things right and are accountable for our personal actions and outcomes. We take initiative, provide relentless follow up, complete every task to its fullest and give our greatest individual effort in the pursuit of achieving our goals. We develop and activate systems to continually improve best practices. We consistently learn, grow and master to further improve ourselves, our team and our company.

Gratitude

We are grateful for the opportunity to better our community and the lives of others. We celebrate our personal wins and the wins of our clients and team members. We show our appreciation at every chance by acknowledging the achievement of others and saying thank you.

Integrity

We bring the utmost integrity to everything we do. We speak the truth, deliver what we promise and only make agreements that we intend to keep.

Celebration of Community

We celebrate and contribute to our community by passionately serving our clients, guests, partners, and teammates. We look for ways to create and deliver WOW! moments in each of our projects.

Team Work

We understand our greatest strength is our team's knowledge, experience and energy. By working cooperatively, we achieve our greatest results. We care about the development, growth and success of ourselves, our team mates, clients, and vendors. We are committed to providing strong leadership, effective communication and supporting our team. "None of us is as good as all of us."

Excellent Customer-Focused Service

We are committed to providing exceptional service to develop enthusiastically satisfied customers.

Attitude & Fun

We are in the entertainment business and we create fun and don't forget to bring a little weirdness. We bring our best attitude and seek ways to inspire others to have fun and be joyful. We work hard but play harder. We don't forget to be awesome.

Make an Impact

We measure our success by making an impact for our clients and event guests. By doing our best collectively and individually through offering the best service, ideas, and execution, we achieve our best as a company. We set the highest standards for ourselves and work tirelessly to achieve our goals.
